

IÑIGO SESMA
(ES, 1987)

Iñigo Sesma (San Sebastián, Spain, 1987) holds a degree in Fine Arts from the University of Barcelona and continued his training in New York at the National School and Academy of Arts and the School of Visual Arts. In 2016, he obtained a Master's in Painting from the University of the Basque Country. He has held artist residencies in Berlin and Los Angeles, and in 2017, he was a finalist for the BP Portrait Award at the National Gallery in London. His work has been exhibited in galleries and international art fairs in Miami, Paris, and New York, and is part of collections such as the Diputación Foral de Guipúzcoa and The Art Institute of Chicago.

He currently resides in San Sebastián, where he combines his work at the Formato Norte studio with large-scale outdoor murals in cities across the United States, Spain, Greece, Croatia, France, Belgium, and Australia. Influenced by cinematic language and the American narrative of the 1960s, his work explores the diversity of cultures, communities, and landscapes through a painting practice that transcends literal representation. In his compositions, Sesma captures the atmosphere of the places he visits and the human presence within them, constructing a pictorial documentary based on his own experiences and observations.
